DEGREE PROGRAMS

The Associate's degree options in Arts, Ministry, Biblical Studies, and Christian Studies provide students with a strong foundation in Scripture, theology, spiritual formation, and practical ministry. The program prepares students to serve faithfully and effectively in the church, the community, and the marketplace. The associate's degree is a 60-credit-hour undergraduate credential that is typically completed in two years. In addition to scheduled class sessions, students complete required coursework and assignments designed to strengthen biblical understanding and practical application. Courses include, but are not limited to: Spiritual Formation and Discipleship, Hermeneutics, Old Testament Survey, Pentateuch, Foundational Prayer, Historical Books, Poetic and Wisdom Books, Theology I and II, Worship and Praise, Servant Leadership and Communication, Ministry Capstone I and II, New Testament Survey, the Gospels, Acts, Evangelism, the Epistles, Prophets, Biblical Ethics, Apologetics, and Spiritual Gifts.

Class sessions are held every Monday from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. during the school year, with a short winter break.

The Bachelor's degree options in Arts, Ministry, Biblical Studies, and Christian Studies build upon the biblical and ministry foundation established in the associate's degree program. Through advanced study and practical application, students deepen their understanding of Scripture, leadership, discipleship, teaching, ministry administration, and service in the church, the community, and the marketplace. The bachelor's degree is a 120-credit-hour undergraduate credential. The 120 credit hours include the 60 credit hours completed through the associate's degree program. In addition to scheduled class sessions, students complete required coursework and assignments that support advanced biblical study, leadership development, and practical ministry preparation. Courses include, but are not limited to: Leadership and Mentorship, Church History, Principles and Methods of Teaching, Marketplace Ministry, Spiritual Formation II, Introduction to Christian Counseling, Christian Sexuality, Hearing the Voice of God, Group Ministry, Digital Discipleship, Theology of Spiritual Warfare I and II, Foundations of Youth Ministry, Jesus in the Old Testament, Prison Epistles, History of Revival and Prayer, Ministry Leadership in the Local Church, Ministry Administration and Strategic Planning, and Ministry Capstone I and II.

Class sessions are held one Saturday each month during the school year.

The Master's degree options in Arts, Ministry, Biblical Studies, and Christian Studies provide advanced biblical, theological, and leadership preparation for students seeking to strengthen their effectiveness in ministry, organizational leadership, and Christian service. The program encourages students to integrate rigorous study, spiritual formation, and practical ministry application within their selected field. The master's degree is a 36-credit-hour graduate credential awarded upon completion of an advanced course of study. Students must hold a bachelor's degree before beginning master's-level study. Courses include: Advanced Theology: Christology, Introduction to the Old Testament, Apologetics, Theology of the Holy Spirit, Christian Leadership, Christ-Centered Counseling, Church Foundations, Ministry Management, New Testament Introduction, and Spiritual Formation.

ENROLLMENT DISCLOSURE

Christian Life College Delaware is a religious education ministry of Community Christian Worship Center. It operates as a satellite or extension campus of Christian Life College. Our programs are designed primarily for students who want to deepen their biblical knowledge, experience personal and spiritual growth, and prepare for Christian ministry or other religious service.

Who Awards the Degree or Certificate?

Christian Life College is responsible for awarding degrees and other credentials earned through its approved programs. Community Christian Worship Center and Christian Life College Delaware do not independently award academic degrees.

Accreditation

Christian Life College and Christian Life College Delaware may hold accreditation or membership through a religious or nongovernmental accrediting organization. This type of accreditation may not be recognized by the United States Department of Education. Because of this, some colleges, universities, employers, licensing agencies, government agencies, chaplaincy programs, or other organizations may not recognize credits or credentials earned through Christian Life College.

Transfer of Credits

Credits earned through Christian Life College Delaware may be accepted by other Christian Life College campuses or partnership organizations. However, another college, university, seminary, or educational institution is not required to accept these credits. Each institution decides whether it will accept transfer credits. Students who plan to continue their education should contact the institution they hope to attend before enrolling.

Employment, Licensing, and Other Uses

A degree or certificate earned through Christian Life College may not meet the requirements for every job, professional license, chaplaincy program, graduate program, salary increase, ordination process, or other opportunity. Employers, educational institutions, churches, ministry organizations, denominational bodies, licensing agencies, and government agencies make their own decisions about which credits and credentials they will accept.

Student Responsibility

Before enrolling, students should confirm that the program will meet their personal, spiritual, educational, and vocational goals.

These goals may include:

- Personal and spiritual growth
- Biblical knowledge
- Ministry preparation
- Ordination
- Employment
- Professional licensing
- Chaplaincy
- Transfer to another institution
- Graduate education
- Salary advancement

Students are encouraged to contact any employer, school, licensing agency, ministry organization, or denominational body whose approval may be important to their future plans.

STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

*By signing the enrollment agreement, the student confirms that they have read and understand this disclosure.
The student also acknowledges that they have had an opportunity to ask questions about the program, accreditation, transfer of credits, degree recognition, and the possible use of the credential.*
